

THE NEW YORK SUN.
PUBLISHED DAILY.—SUNDAYS EXCEPTED.
At the corner of Nassau and Fulton streets.
Single Copies—TWO CENTS.
Twelve copies per week—Six Dollars per year.
WEEKLY SUN.
Readers of The Sun, &c., are sent by mail
& One Dollar per year, single copies three cents.
MOSES S. BEATH, Proprietor of The Sun Establishment.

THE SUN.

Thirty-Fifth Year.

NEW-YORK, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1867.

Price Two Cents

THE OLD WORLD. Sun Cable Dispatches. THE PENIAN EXCITEMENT. AFFAIRS IN ITALY AND ROME. The United States and St. Thomas.

The Fenian Excitement in England.
London, Dec. 23.—Fenians still continue a fair share of public attention, though the excitement caused by the recent outrages has pretty much died out. There is a widespread and everywhere existing feeling favorable to the amelioration of the condition of the Irish, as the most effective means of suppressing Fenianism. The Times this morning strongly favors the idea, and believes that the next session of the House will be occupied with the consideration of Irish affairs.

(London, Dec. 23.)—Evening.—
The regular life-force of this movement has been increased. There is a military post, and the agent at St. Thomas has given a full account of the same.

Timothy Leonard and Jerry Allen, the alleged perpetrators of the Cheltenham explosion, were brought before a magistrate today, and after a preliminary examination, at the close of which they were remanded to prison.

Affairs in Italy.
Paris, Dec. 23.—The governments of France and Italy have commenced negotiations for the abrogation of the September convention, with the understanding that any agreement they may arrive at in the matter shall be submitted to the approval of the powers of Europe.

The Italian Parliament, by a recent vote, refused to pay the interest on the debt of the provinces formerly belonging to the States of the Church, when that debt was assumed by Italy when those provinces were annexed to the kingdom. The French government has sent a despatch to Florence protesting against this action of the legislature.

(Florence, Dec. 23.)—Evening.—
The national Parliament will, at an early day, vote to reconstitute, in a solemn manner, its Declaration that the city of Rome belongs to Italy as the capital of the nation.

(Florence, Dec. 23.)—Evening.—
The national Parliament will, at an early day, vote to reconstitute, in a solemn manner, its Declaration that the city of Rome belongs to Italy as the capital of the nation.

(Paris, Dec. 23.)—Evening.—
The national Parliament will, at an early day, vote to reconstitute, in a solemn manner, its Declaration that the city of Rome belongs to Italy as the capital of the nation.

(Paris, Dec. 23.)—Evening.—
It is expected that Risso will resume the Premiership of Italy, and will form a new cabinet to replace it.

The French government is secretly considering the method of ordering the troops of the French expedition remaining at Cava-Vecchia to return to Rome.

Cromwellian Conspirators.
Paris, Dec. 23.—Morning.—M. Verdiere and other members of a secret political society which has held its meetings in this city have been sentenced to imprisonment.

A Congressitory Attestation.
Rome, Dec. 23.—The House of Representatives has passed a resolution, authorizing the government to present to the King of Italy a copy of the constitution of the United States.

The United States and St. Thomas.
Paris, Dec. 23.—The question of the transfer of the Danish West India to the United States will be submitted to the Senate in January next.

Catholic Maritime Intelligence.
Lavaca, Dec. 23.—The long C. W. Ring, Capt. A. V. Ring, which sailed from New York November 2d, for Antwerp, has put into Falmouth, where it is discharging her cargo.

West Indians.
The British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate. Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

The New England Society exhibited its anniversary a social entertainment at 31 St. Louis, last night.

Lavaca, Dec. 23.—The officers of the Grand Trunk Railway were entered by hundreds early yesterday morning, and the said train open and a large sum of money abstracted.

Quincy, Dec. 23.—A heavy snow storm fell Saturday night and continued until today. The railroads are badly obstructed and the citizens are very incensed.

The water pipes which were recently damaged have been soon in order by dint of infinite trouble from the strikers.

British Colonies.
Lavaca, Dec. 23.—The long C. W. Ring, Capt. A. V. Ring, which sailed from New York November 2d, for Antwerp, has put into Falmouth, where it is discharging her cargo.

West Indians.
The British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

The New England Society exhibited its anniversary a social entertainment at 31 St. Louis, last night.

Lavaca, Dec. 23.—The officers of the Grand Trunk Railway were entered by hundreds early yesterday morning, and the said train open and a large sum of money abstracted.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.

Thirdly, the British Colonies, now situated at Monroe, are having a severe test of their powers of endurance by their cold climate.

Although there has been little afternoons of frost, the temperature has not dropped below 40°, and has not been allowed to rise above 50°.

Secondly, the winds are considerably delayed by the south winds.